OUR FAITH

Sharing the Gospel: John 20:19-31

In this Sunday's Gospel, the Risen Jesus meets his closest friends for the first time after they had all abandoned him in his hour of need. It must have been a moment they were all dreading. Yet his first words, twice over, were, 'Peace be with you'. No rebuke, no reproach, just 'Peace!' And then he showed them his wounds, the unmistakable signs.

'As the Father sent me, I also send you'. While they were feeling they had failed abysmally as his disciples, he entrusted them with the same mission he had received from the Father: now they knew it was not they who had chosen him, but he had chosen them. Their mission, a mission of bringing forgiveness of sins, was to be carried out by the power of the Holy Spirit. I stand in awe in the presence of the Risen Jesus, sharing his great joy and that of his best friends at this meeting.

Thomas places his hands in the wounds of Jesus, and the experience draws from him the first, ringing affirmation of Christ's divinity: "My Lord and my God!" Fully human, and fully divine.
